"Welcome to the Catholic Chaplaincy at Cardiff University. It is one of the oldest chaplaincies in the country. Catholic Chaplaincy alumni have served the Church and civil society with great distinction over the years. I do hope that you will participate in the life of the Chaplaincy and understand that the facilities of Newman Hall are available to you."

A new intolerance is spreading, that is quite obvious. There are well-established standards of thinking that are supposed to be imposed on everyone. These are then announced in terms of so-called "negative tolerance". For instance, when people say that for the sake of negative tolerance [i.e. "not offending anyone"] there must be no crucifix in public buildings. With that we are basically experiencing the abolition of tolerance, for it means, after all, that religion, that the Christian faith is no longer allowed to express itself visibly.... No one is forced to be a Christian. But no one should be forced to live according to the "new religion" as though it alone were definitive and obligatory for all mankind. – Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Students often arrive at University being very unfamiliar and even afraid of Confession. Poor catechesis in parish and school and an inflated sense of one's own "reasons" for sinning results in a meaningless ritualized encounter. Advent is an excellent time to begin a new adult appreciation of this wonderful encounter with Christ. Go on, you know you want to...
